Van Horne Organizations

American Legion Post 148

The Legion is open to membership for anyone who has served in the military. The American Legion serves the community, state, and nation in many ways. The Van Horne Legion has won the children and youth award for the state many times over the years. We have helped with many youth projects. Each year we give out over $2,000 in scholarships and participate in 5th grade essay contest for Benton Community students. We have flag day, Memorial Day, and Veterans Day programs. We sponsor the Sons of American Legion for eligible Veteran's sons and grandsons. Wives and daughters of Veterans can join the American Legion Auxiliary, which is very active in Van Horne. The Legion also has fund raising meals which are open to the public. If you enjoy serving your community, join the Legion. Yearly dues are $50 for the Legion and $20 for Sons of the American Legion.
